Background and Objectives

Kodah Liberia Chicken is a leading local Poultry Business owned by a Liberian, located in the Paynesville community, Montserrado County. The Business raises and sells chicken meat both live and packaged chicken to its customers within Montserrado County and across. The Business owned 2 acres of land where a one-story building that houses the Chicken, a production room containing equipment, offices for workers, a Solar system control room, and a Mini Cold storage mounted for installation along with the solar installation. The business has raised 1500 birds every two months or 9000 birds annually. Also, the land is occupied with a large quantity of corn and green planted for support of feed for the birds. The business Kodah Chicken has invested a total of 48,000 USD in various types of poultry equipment as a process to beef up capacity and production as well as preservation of poultry chick meat. Through this partnership, Kodah Chicken and PROSPECTS IV intend to increase mass production of chicken meat to be processed, packaged, and sold at all marketplaces for an affordable lower cost for low-income earners, creating a friendly and stable employment opportunity for youth and women in the country, and reduce the malnutrition rate among children, youth and women.
